

Non-responsive

Sharon DeMeo – For her tenacious effort, insightful research, and coordination with EPA Headquarters regarding the national and regional implications of requiring a zero discharge technology to treat flue gas desulfurization waste water at PSNH Merrimack Bow coal-fired power plant.

Non-responsive

Dec. 2014– Doug Corb For his insights, effort, and perseverance in successfully preparing the final permit for the Ayer, Massachusetts Waste Water Treatment Plant permit to reduce its discharge of water pollution to the Nashua River.

Jan. 2015 - Michael Cobb For the exemplary job leading to the successful issuance of the final NPDES permit for the Pittsfield, New Hampshire Waste Water Treatment Plant, demonstrating exceptional working skills and attention to details.

Feb. 2015 George Papadopoulos For his focused effort at efficiently and effectively developing the draft and final permits for the Seaman's Paper Company in Massachusetts with legally-binding provisions to reduce the discharge of water pollutants

March 2015 - Meredith Timony For the exemplary job in analyzing and addressing phosphorous and metal pollutants in responding to numerous public comments to support the issuance of a final NPDES permit for the Nashua, New Hampshire Waste Water Treatment Facility and thus reducing water pollution impacts to the Nashua River.